WHAT'S ON THE MENU

An aerial photograph of the Riverdale neighborhood in Toronto during the 'blue hour'. The sky is filled with dramatic, dark clouds with patches of orange and yellow light from the setting sun. In the background, a tall, grey skyscraper (the TD Bank Tower) stands out against the sky. To the right, two prominent red brick chimneys are visible. The foreground shows a busy street intersection with crosswalks, traffic lights, and several cars. On the left, there's a brick building with a sign that says 'FINAL RELEASE OF LOFT'. In the middle ground, there are more brick buildings, some with commercial signs like 'CARGO' and 'GO FUEL GOOD'. A large green tree is in the lower center. The overall scene captures a mix of urban architecture and natural elements.
